Biography

Alexandra “Alex” McMann is an insurance coverage attorney in Pennsylvania. She represents insurers and their insureds in commercial litigation and provides coverage advice to insurers on matters arising from gig economy and commercial general liability matters.

Before joining Fields Howell, Alex worked as a Summer Associate at a regional law firm where she conducted legal research, drafted memoranda, summarized various records, and drafted discovery responses in medical malpractice cases. She also spent a summer interning for the Honorable Judge Tonianne J. Bongiovanni at the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, worked as a research assistant for Professor Luke Repici, and as a legal intern at a New Jersey law firm.

Alex graduated from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law in 2024. During her undergraduate studies, she earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Studies with a concentration in Management and a minor in Writing. She is licensed to practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
