Biography

Julieth "Julie" Monroy specializes in providing legal representation and counsel to domestic and international insurers regarding personal injury, commercial litigation, negligence, and wrongful death cases. Julie is skilled in evaluating and providing strategy considerations for various types of insurance policies, including automobile, commercial general liability, homeowner's, and umbrella policies.

Before joining Fields Howell, Julie worked on many complex litigation cases at a Miami law firm, gaining valuable experience in successfully guiding her clients through depositions, hearings, settlement negotiations, and trials.

Julie obtained her Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from St. Thomas University School of Law in 2011, graduating in the top 5% of her class. Julie was a member of the St. Thomas Law Review, the Moot Court Board, and was a Dean's Merit Scholar. Throughout law school, Julie earned eleven CALI book awards and was invited to address candidates for bar admission before the Florida Third District Court of Appeals.
