Biography

Tal Harari, an accomplished insurance defense attorney based in our Miami office, adeptly represents a diverse portfolio of prominent clients in areas such as automobile accidents, premises liability, and commercial liability matters.

A Magna Cum Laude graduate from Nova Southeastern University's Shepard Broad Law Center, Tal ranked in the top 10% of her class. She earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Miami.

Prior to joining Fields Howell, Tal served as Of Counsel at a national firm, specializing in high-exposure litigation, particularly in transportation cases.

With a strategic and comprehensive approach, Tal independently manages cases from inception to resolution. Her proficiency extends to providing coverage opinions and defending clients throughout various legal proceedings. Her experience encompasses the entire litigation process, from initial claims investigations through discovery, depositions, mediation, and trial.

This breadth of experience highlights Tal's versatility and commitment to ensuring comprehensive and effective legal representation. Merging academic excellence with practical experience, Tal contributes significantly to the legal community. Recognized for her unwavering dedication to justice and a proven commitment to achieving favorable outcomes for clients, Tal Harari stands as a formidable asset in the legal field.

Tal is fluent in both English and Hebrew.
