Fields Howell LLP

Aviation Operations & Regulatory Compliance

Guiding Operators Through Complex Aviation Regulations

Compliance with FAA regulations is one of the most critical challenges faced by operators and maintenance providers. FARs governing operators and repair stations are complex. Our attorneys are uniquely positioned to help operators understand these requirements and apply them effectively to daily operations.

Whether you are launching new operations or refining established programs, Fields Howell is prepared to guide you through the regulatory landscape with clarity and confidence.

Attorneys

Our Aviation Operations & Regulatory Compliance Team

- John P. Cappel
- Robert L. Lakind