rlacayo@fieldshowell.com | 786.870.5615

Ronald A. Lacayo specializes in insurance defense with a focus on first-party property claims. In addition to his experience litigating property and bad faith claims, Ronald provides coverage advice to domestic and international insurers pertaining to a variety of commercial claims.

Ronald served on both sides of insurance law, having acted as plaintiff's counsel and defense counsel in his previous positions at South Florida law firms. From this experience, he has unique insight into each matter he takes on, giving him the ability to anticipate opposing counsel's possible strategies and efficiently solve our clients' problems.

Ronald graduated from St. Thomas University School of Law in 2012 where he was a member of Phi Delta Phi International Legal Society and served as a member of the St. Thomas Law Review. He earned a CALI Award in Contracts and also excelled in the areas of Property, Torts, and Civil Procedure, all of which were courses he assisted in instructing while in school. Ronald earned his B.B.A. in International Business from Florida International University in 2008.
